ODYSSEUS ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2017
“BEYOND ‘CRISIS’? THE STATE OF IMMIGRATION AND ASYLUM LAW AND POLICY IN THE EU”
(10TH FEBRUARY 2017) - UNIVERSITÉ LIBRE DE BRUXELLES, BE

EUROPEAN PAPERS

After the success of the 2016 Odysseus Annual Conference on solidarity in asylum and borders policies, the 2017 Odysseus Annual Conference “Beyond ‘Crisis’? The State of Immigration and Asylum Law and Policy in the EU”, organised in cooperation with the European Commission’s Representation in Belgium, will critically assess the developments in European Immigration and Asylum Law and Policy during the year 2016, as well as casting a look into 2017. In doing so, the event is organised along three different content streams – Cooperation between Member States, Protection of Persons, Management of Migration Flows. The conference gives participants the opportunity to focus on one specific area of migration law and policy within one particular stream or branch out to get a more comprehensive overview on different developments and mix workshops from the three streams.

Conference organized by:

Odysseus Academic Network - Academic network for legal studies on immigration and asylum in Europe

General information

Programme and other practical information

Registration (waiting list)
