CONFERENCE “THE LIMITS OF MUTUAL RECOGNITION AND MUTUAL TRUST” (9TH JUNE 2017) UTRECHT UNIVERSITY (NL)

EUROPEAN PAPERS

The Conference on The limits of mutual trust and mutual recognition will take place at Utrecht University, on June 9, 2017, from 13:00 until 18:00, and is organized by dr. Ton van den Brink and dr. Tony Marguery as part of the RENFORCE (Utrecht Centre for Regulation and Enforcement in Europe) project on the Limits of mutual recognition.

The occasion for this conference is the publication of a Special Section on Mutual Recognition and Mutual Trust for European Papers (Vol. 1, 2016, No 3 and Vol. 2, 2017, No 1 (forthcoming)). Mutual recognition – and the underlying principle of mutual trust – have developed into key principles of the European Union, to achieve a wide range of policy objectives. The principles have become essential tools in the EU integration process. The speakers of the Conference will address mutual recognition and mutual trust from the perspective of different EU policy areas and from a more constitutional perspective. The focus will be on how mutual recognition and mutual trust propose to achieve EU integration while ensuring the protection of citizens and preserving the diversity of the Member States legal systems.

Conference organized by: dr. Ton van den Brink and dr. Tony Marguery

Venue: Raadzaal, Achter Sint Pieter 200, Utrecht (The Netherlands)
